

Street Project Slated

Contract bids for improvement of the intersection of Alameda Street and Del Amo Boulevard in the Carson-Dominguez area will be opened by the Board of Supervisors Dec. 3, Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

Project plans and specifications, prepared by the County Road Department, were approved by the Board Nov. 12.

Work will include resurfacing a 1,000-foot portion of the north side of Del Amo Boulevard east of Alameda Street, and widening of a 1,500-foot stretch of roadway on the east side of Alameda Street north of Del Amo Boulevard.

PROGRAMMED as a future project is the full improvement of a 1.1-mile stretch of Del Amo Boulevard between Wilmington and Santa Fe avenues.

The project is dependent upon the availability of funds, Supervisor Chace added.

The Del Amo-Alameda intersection improvement will serve a total of 16,000 cars and trucks a day.

During progress of the work, northbound traffic on Alameda Street may be restricted to one lane. Westbound traffic on Del Amo Boulevard may also be reduced to one lane during working hours.

Curbs and gutters already have been constructed, under county permit, on both major highways at the intersection by the developer of the adjacent property.

210 Smog Citations

Los Angeles County Air Pollution Control District inspectors issued 210 citations and notices of violation during the month of October, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reported today.

Inspectors investigated more than 2,000 locations and responded to 168 citizens' complaints during the month. As a result, Hahn pointed out, 34 notices of violation were issued to stationary sources. Violation notices were issued to 176 passenger cars and trucks for excessive smoke.

Prosecution of 120 violations by the APCD during October resulted in conviction in 109 cases. Ten cases involving excessive smoke from motor vehicles were dismissed by the courts upon presentation of proof that the violating condition had been corrected. Deducting these cases, the conviction rate for October was 99.2 per cent.

Fines for violation were assessed by the courts in the amount of $3,135, which brings total fines assessed this fiscal year to $16,144.

Obedience Class Sets Graduation

Harbor-Lite Dog Obedience Club will graduate two novice dog obedience classes today at 7 p.m. and Saturday at 2 p.m. Both graduation exercises will be conducted at Peck Park in San Pedro.

Among those graduating will be Mrs. D. Goodland, Doberman Pincher; Patricia Grave, German Shepherd, and Mike Kawamoto, German Shepherd, all of Torrance; Steve Walker, English Springer Spaniel, of Harbor City; Rosalie Ar-mijo, Samoyed, of Carson; and Connie Harpur, Golden Retriever, of Wilmington.

Area residents who will take part in Saturday's ceremonies include Mildred Rice, Scottish Terrier; Elli Reaben, German Shepherd; and Tina Herrmann, Hungarian Sheepdog, all of Torrance; Aubert Pitta Jr., German Shepherd; Rosanna Adams, miniature Poodle, and Donald Sorensen, German Shepherd, all of Lomita.

ART FAN SLOW will judge the graduation competition. All events are open to the public.

Highest scoring handlers and dogs will receive trophies and ribbons. A special trophy for the highest scoring junior handler will be awarded. All graduates will receive a graduation certificate.

Registration for the new Harbor-Lite novice classes will begin at 7 p.m. Dec. 4 and at 2 p.m. Dec. 7.
